Things you should know

You can nominate a Third Party (e.g. your Adviser Firm) to access or withdraw from your nominated account, in which case, you will be bound by their transactions and instructions to us in the same way as if you had performed them yourself.

You can cancel this authority by telling us in writing but cancellation also takes effect only from the date when we amend our records to note the change.

Levels of access

Enquiry Access:

- You authorise the Third Party to have access to information about your nominated account.
- You do not authorise the Third Party to make withdrawals from your nominated account, make any changes to your nominated account details, close your nominated account or enable use of your cheque book or debit card, should you have one.

Fee Payment Authority:

- You authorise the Third Party to have Enquiry Access and to make withdrawals from your nominated account for the purpose of paying their fees and regulatory fees.

General Withdrawal Authority:

- you authorise the Third Party to make payments and withdrawals in accordance with the terms set out under 'Fee Payment Authority' above, and
- in addition, you authorise the Third Party to make payments and withdrawals for any purpose including settlement or investment using online, electronic and telephone withdrawal services or by any other method agreed in writing by us
- you do not authorise the Third Party to make any changes to your nominated account details, close your account or enable use of your cheque book or debit card, should you have one, and
- your stockbroker or Adviser Firm has the right to place a hold on funds in your nominated account, for future payment purposes.

Full Authorised Signatory (individual persons):

- you authorise the Third Party to make payments and withdrawals in accordance with the terms set under General Withdrawal Authority' above, and
- in addition, this authority allows the Third Party to use the cheque book and/or debit facility should you have one, change details on your account and close your nominated account. This does not allow the authorised signatory to appoint other authorised signatories to the account except in limited circumstances as referred to in clause 9.3 of the BWA CMA Access Facilities – Conditions of Use document.
